EA001	Crane appears on Gas Board site, 40 Eastcote Road – seen from West End Lane
EA002	A first peep through the gate
EA003	Excavating the underground car park
EA004	The original gas company cottages, soon to have new neighbours
EA005	Warning of deep excavation
EA006	A new digger in action – seen from Eastcote Road
EA007	Signs of real progress
EA009	Serious building begins
EA011	A very orderly building site
EA013	Start on the second storey
EA014	And the third
EA016	Looks like a roof taking shape
EA018	Windows in everywhere
EA019	The outer wall goes up
EA020	Not used
EA022	Early advert for Royale Crescent development, near Roxbourne Park
EA023	New pedestrian walkway over bridge to Royale Crescent
EA024	Royale Crescent takes shape
EA025	The marketing suite
EA026	New residents are moving in to Royale Crescent
EA027	Beaumont Mews, behind Pinner High Street – Heritage award winner
EA028	A one-off development in Oakhill Avenue
EA029	A closer look at the new house in Oakhill Avenue
EA030	Completed development at 40 Eastcote Road